shop, and then a full restaurant, until they sold it and moved to a farm in Michigan. They moved back to the area in 1984 and took over and ran Everett's bakery in Nappanee for ten years until they were able to acquire their original bakery building which included the original oven for the 7-foot apple pie. Ron was the original creator of the 7-foot apple pie.

Ron and Glenna moved to the Nappanee/Wakarusa area in 1965 and bought the Nappanee Bakery on Market and ran it together, eventually expanding it into a coffee shop, soda
